Persecution Prayer:

The North Korean government has zero tolerance toward any suspicion of Christian behavior. People can be executed or exiled for even looking at the Bible. The government views Christianity as a "sin" and as a way the West tries to invade its country. However, there are courageous believers like Sang-chul, who evangelize to their fellow countrymen in spite of the dangers. Sang-chul said that he thanks God for Christians in America who pray for North Korean believers. Let us continue to pray for Sang-chul and other Christians in North Korea, that their faith will continue to grow. Pray for their protection from their evil leaders.
